Tundra recruits Head of Research

Tundra Fonder continues to expand in frontier markets. Sana Abdullah has been appointed as Head of Research, and will be located at Tundra's office in Karachi.

Tundra has recruited a Head of Research in December. Sana Abdullah will be responsible for Tundra's research activities in frontier markets. Sana Abdullah joins from a position as Head of Research at Global Securities in Pakistan. She has worked as an analyst at several brokerage firms, with a focus on sectors such as Cement, Telecoms and Energy. She has also been responsible for analysing companies listed on Tadawul – the Saudi Stock Exchange. Sana Abdullah has a MBA degree from Iqra University.

"I have followed Tundra Fonder since it started its Pakistan fund, and I very much look forward to working at an international leading asset manager in frontier markets, as well as to leading the team of analysts in our work ahead," says Sana Abdullah.

"We continue to strengthen our research team on the ground in Asia in order to further enhance our opportunities for early detection of the best companies in frontier markets," says Jon Scheiber, CEO Tundra Fonder.
