Tundra signs distribution agreement with SEB

Tundra Fonder has signed a distribution agreement with SEB. This means that even more investors will have the opportunity to choose Tundra's funds for their future savings.

Tundra Fonder continues to grow and expand its number of distributors. Since it was founded in October 2011, Tundra has grown rapidly and now has assets under management of close to SEK 2 billion, thirteen employees and offices in Stockholm, Sweden, and in Karachi, Pakistan.

It will initially be possible to invest through SEB in Tundra Frontier Opportunities Fund.

The collaboration with SEB is one in a series of recent distribution agreements. Last year, Tundra Fonder also started to work with companies including Skandia, Movestic, Garantum and Max Matthiessen, which now offer Tundra's funds in their ranges. Tundra already had agreements with Swedish, Norwegian and Finnish distributors.

"At Tundra Fonder we are pleased and proud to have succeeded in linking up with SEB as an additional distributor. This demonstrates that our funds are increasingly in demand and that we today have Scandinavia's widest range of frontier market funds," says Jon Scheiber, CEO Tundra Fonder.

Tundra Fonder has distribution agreements in Sweden with Aktiespararnas Aktieinvest, Avanza Bank, Nordnet, Fondmarknaden.se, Garantum Fondkommission, Max Matthiessen, MFEX Mutual Funds Exchange, Nasdaq Nordic Fund Market and Skandia, Nord Fondkommission and Movestic Liv & Pension. The funds are also available at most Swedish private banks through the fund platforms. In Finland we have distribution agreements with Elite and Nordnet, and in Norway with Skandia and Nordnet.

Tundra Fonder is an independent fund manager specialising in frontier markets and emerging markets. We invest in companies when they are as yet unknown, unavailable or non-transparent to the large mass of ordinary fund managers, but nonetheless more exciting and interesting as investments.
